Westchester Loves to Read Program Guidelines

Dates: October 2019 - April 2020

Recommendation threshold for receiving pass:

300 Minutes per Month

Prize: Pass to Playland Opening Day

Rules:

In an effort to promote reading at a young age, County Executive George Latimer is proud to announce the “Westchester Loves to Read” initiative. Open to students County-wide in grades pre-k through 5th Grade, this reading incentive initiative asks students read at least 300 minutes per month from October to April. This equates to roughly 10 minutes a day. Students that successfully check off each box and return the completed log to Communications@Westchestegov.com will receive a free to pass to Playland Park’s Opening Day in May 2020. It’s as simple as that. Read. Log. Win.

For any questions, contact the Communications Department at Communications@WestchesterGov.com or call (914) 995-2900.

Special message from Westchester County Executive George Latimer

George Latimer
County Executive

Dear Parents and Guardians of Westchester County Students Grades Pre-K through 5th grade:

In an effort to promote reading at a young age, I am proud to announce the second year of the “Westchester Loves to Read” initiative. Open to students County-wide in grades pre-k through 5th Grade, this reading incentive initiative asks students read at least 300 minutes per month from October to April. This equates to roughly 10 minutes a day. Students that successfully check off each box and return the completed log to Communications@Westchestergov.com will receive a free to pass to Playland Park’s Opening Day in May 2020. It’s as simple as that. Read. Log. Win.

Attached to this letter is a log where students and guardians can mark each completed month. In order to receive the student’s free pass, submit completed log to Communications@westchestergov.com

All students who have reached the 4,000 minute threshold will be contacted for their prize.

For any questions, contact the Communications Department at my office at Communications@WestchesterGov.com or call (914) 995-2900.

I am truly looking forward to seeing all of the winning logs come in and seeing you all at Playland!

George Latimer
